UNCORK & UNWIND

Christmas will be over and New Year's falls mid-week, so why not "uncork & unwind" with your OBSC friends and neighbors. On Saturday, December 27, the OBSC will host a wine tasting party at 5:00PM at the Cholla Bay Community Clubhouse. Everyone is to bring 2 bottles of the same variety wine ($8 and up). Helen would like to have the wine at the Club by noon to get the bottles disguised in plain brown bags. If you have a favorite wine glass, bring it! If not, we will have glasses with a marker to distinguish your glass from the others. Along with your wine, bring a dish to share (at 5:00PM) that compliments your choice in wine. The dishes should be cooked at home, so we don't need the kitchen. The club will provide beer, chips and popcorn for the non-winners. Our house wine will be available after the good stuff is gone. The price for members and guests is $5, so invite your friends and their wine! Sounds like another great new event thanks to Helen Dahlstrom. Helen would like to get an idea of how many plan to attend. Please contact her by email at hmdahlstrom@qwestoffice.net, if you plan to participate.

New Year's Day and Football!

On New Year's Day, we are hosting another all-day college football party complete with snacks, a bloody mary bar and beer. Celebrate the new year and three of the most popular college bowl games. The festivities begin at the 10:30AM for the kick off of the Cotton Bowl (Michigan State vs Baylor). The Rose Bowl (Oregon vs Florida State) will be on at 3:00PM and the Sugar Bowl (Alabama vs Ohio State) kicks off at 6:30PM. There will be a 25¢ pool for the Cotton Bowl, and a 50¢ pool for the Rose Bowl and a $1 pool for the Sugar Bowl. Come at 10:30AM and stay to the bitter end or come and go all afternoon to check your scores and collect your winnings!! Enjoy the entire day of food, fun and beverages for $5!!

This event is open to everyone. Invite your friends and neighbors to join us for the member price of $5

OKTOBERFIESTA & INTO THE FUTURE

Helen & Rick Dahlstrom stepped up to host our annual Oktoberfiesta back on October 11. They put on a terrific tradition German meal for around 60 in attendance. After dinner, Rhea and Billie held one of their great raffles. There was lots of good prizes and happy winners. This event would have been canceled if it wasn't for Rick & Helen. They have been responsible for a lot of fun that wouldn't have happened without their service to the club. We need MORE members to host parties. It's not that much work, you'll get lots of help AND you will be an OBSC hero, like Rick & Helen. The Caballeros are hosting our January Winterfest. The Lukers are hosting the St. Patrick's Day dinner in March. For February, we have a parade host, a theme: Beaches, Bars & Boats, but no dinner host. In the past, it has been a cajun dinner, however, if YOU are the host, the dinner can be anything you want! The OBSC motto is: if YOU do it, you CAN'T be wrong. If you would like to be this Mardi Gras hero, see any OBSC officer for more information and get involved behind the scenes in YOUR social club.

OUR 2ND OFF ROAD POKER RUN

Our second off road poker run of 2014 was held on Saturday, November 29 during a busy fun-filled Thanksgiving weekend. After Kelly conducted the drivers meeting at 10:00AM, the runners started the 25 mile course; the first stop being at the all new Chango's. They served a terrific lunch special and drinks all around. After Chango's we headed out to the "Desert Bar". A temporary liquidation stop for another poker card and drinks. The next leg of the course was the longest, cruising through the Desierto de Altar for over 10 miles ending on Sandy Beach at "Wrecked at the Reef". This stop produced another poker card and drinks. After this stop we dropped into Darren Dodd's "Rocky Point Speedway" to enjoy racing through the obstacles and jumps. The fourth stop was at Cholla's "JJ's Cantina". JJ's provided another poker card and you guessed it, drinks all around. The fifth and final card was drawn at the finish line of the run at the Cholla Bay Community Clubhouse. The conclusion of the poker run was following by happy hour and a great dinner. A particular favorite was the bacon-jalapeno macaroni and cheese. It was unusual and delicious. As you can plainly see in the photos, the OBSC Shot-Ski was in continuous service through the evening. The fireball shots have become an OBSC favorite. The huge cash prizes went to Lois Calvert, Joe Parisella and Martin & Shannon Weiss. Lois won $100 for 3rd place, Joe won $200 for 2nd place and the Martins won $400 as the first place winners! The Martins, as with all guests at the club, were ~~hounded~~ encouraged to join the club. They responded by saying they would love to join, but didn't bring any money. After winning $400, Annette hunted them down and guess what, they are our newest members! This event had even more entries than our May poker run and thanks primarily to Terri & Kelly Ross and Helen & Rick Dahlstrom we all had a great time. As always, our hosts get lots of help along the way. Lois & Jeff Calvert helped mark the course with help from Ruben (until he got fired). Mike & Rhea Dugan provided invaluable help in the kitchen. It goes without saying (BUT I will), please patronize our sponsors establishments, Chango's, Wrecked and JJ's. Their managements went far out of their way to make every stop enjoyable. Let them know we plan to continue these bi-annual poker runs into 2015 and we want them to be a big part of the events!
