Mardi Gras Parade & Dinner

On Saturday, February 18, the OBSC will host the annual Mardi Gras Parade and Party. The theme this year is: COLLEGE SPORTS. The parade will start at the Clubhouse at 4:00PM; please arrive by 3:30PM for preliminary judging and staging. As per OBSC policy, we will have the best judges money can buy!! Awards will be given for the best overall, best conforming to theme, most quirky and the judges' favorite. The winners will be announced after dinner. We encourage everyone to participate in the parade, even if they do not have an entry. The club will supply Mardi Gras beads and trinkets, but please bring candy to throw to the crowds lining the parade route. Happy hour will start immediately after the parade. As usual, beer and wine will be flowing. Dinner will be a tail gate party with gourmet hotdogs, hamburgers, chili and all of the expected tail gate trimmings served around 6:30PM. All this for the usual $10/members and $15/guests.

¡FELIZ AÑO NUEVO!

What a fantastic way to bring in the new year! Fantastic carne asada, tamales, nachos and FRIED ICE CREAM!!! Elmer Parker, his daughter Katie and her significant other, Craig Horpedahl delivered on a promise of great food. The full bar was open for business thanks to Tucson Sue. The beer, wine, booze and trash can margaritas flowed all evening. Unusually beautiful weather allowed the outdoor porch to be enjoyed by all. The music provided by our new band, Veneno, was memorable and kept the crowd dancing into 2012. Our new 50/50 raffle was profitable for the winners as well as the Club. Those attending want to thank everyone who came together to make another great evening of OBSC memories possible.

WINTER FEST

Jerry & Karen Caballero and John & Linda Perrotta did another fantastic job at their annual salute to Winter. Jerry's tortilla soup was a meal in itself! The tender wine-lovers brisket could be cut with a butter knife. All of this topped off with a winter wonderland dessert and hot wine punch - WOW! Lots of members really got into the ugly sweater & hat contest. I am sure that apparel will return to back of their closets. Karen outdid herself with raffle prizes - what a spread! After dinner the winter racers came out of hibernation. Lady Luck smiled TWICE on Paty Lee. The third race was won by Jennifer Hayes. What a great tradition the Caballeros & Perrottas have created for the OBSC! THANK YOU!!

26th Annual BASH!!

Helen Dahlstrom is planning a GREAT 26th annual Bash & Barbecue on Saturday, April 21st from 2:00-7:00PM. The Bash features live music, games of chance and little-skill, our legendary pit barbecue, beer and trash can Margaritas. The top three raffle prizes for the Bash are cash: $300, $200, and $100, but there are countless other valuable prizes, donated by local businesses. Each year the OBSC donates cash to the Lion's Club and the DIF in Puerto Peñasco. These donations have spread goodwill among our Mexican hosts for well over 25 years. We must sell at least 5,000 raffle tickets to make the Bash a financial success. Each member is asked to PLEASE sell or buy at least the 25 raffle tickets enclosed with this newsletter. Many members are in a position to sell or buy many more!! And they do!! Additional tickets can be checked out from Billie Jo Crumbley in Cholla (382-5133, email: chollamidget@gmail.com). Completed raffle tickets can be returned directly to Billie or mailed to the PO Box in Lukeville. Do your part to make the 25th Bash another success!!

The OBSC continues to be the best party in Puerto Peñasco.

DON'T MISS ANY OF THE FUN!!

Membership dues remain $25 annually per member. The OBSC went paperless in 2011. All newsletters will be emailed to members and will be available on the website. However; you may opt for the classic membership ($30) and have your newsletter snail-mailed to your home. Please mail your dues to the P. O. Box in Lukeville. You may also pay your dues directly to Annette Maynard, OBSC membership chair. Annette asks all members to PLEASE fill out all information on the card. We need an accurate email list for the electronic newsletters and want the most current information. The 2012 membership cards are included with this newsletter. They are in the form of a name badge to be attached to a lanyard. Annette makes commemorative tags for each party to be attached with your membership badge. Make it a New Year's resolution to collect them all in 2012!!
